DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 1 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,366,605, (provided in the IDS filed on 8/23/04). This is a double patenting rejection.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claim 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 2 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,366,605. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 2 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,366,605 encompass the limitations of claim 1 of the instant application.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583, (provided in the IDS filed on 8/23/04), in view of claim 3 of said U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583. Claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583 teaches all limitations of claim 1 of the instant application except that Claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583 fails to teach a noise sampler for sampling a plurality of noise samples at a plurality of chip times kT_c , but not at the plurality of symbol times nT_c . However, Claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583 teaches a noise sampler for sampling a plurality of noise samples, and is silent about what are sampling times for the sampling. On the other hand, in a similar endeavor, claim 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583 teach a noise sampler for sampling a plurality of noise samples at a plurality of chip times kT_c , but not at the plurality of symbol times nT_c . It would have been obvious for one skilled in the art to implement the noise sampler of Claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583 for sampling a plurality of noise samples at a plurality of chip times kT_c , but not at the plurality of symbol times nT_c , as taught by claim 3, so that the sampler would carry out the sampling as required.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 2 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 2 and 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,583 encompass the limitations of claim 1 of the instant application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "chip times kT_c ". Parameters "k" and " T_c " are not defined.
